Mr. Sydney P. Noe,

New York City.

Dear Mr. Noe,

I have delayed replying to your kind letter mainly because I expected to visit your city again; but as I seemingly am anchored here indefinitely, I take this means of thanking you for your courtesy. I was very sorry to miss you, but my time was rather short, which was a consolation.

Your report on the coins did not surprise me, as they occupied places of dishonor when found. Please return them. Thank you for the advice concerning the books. I shall write Mr. Raymond, as you suggest, and hope that some day I may be able to make a longer visit to 155th Street.

Yours sincerely,

Louis Booth
